Exhibit Prospectus - Call for Entries It Takes Two: Collaborations by Kentucky Artisans

SEPTEMBER 19, 2015 – FEBRUARY 27, 2016

Entry applications due June 27, 2015

Exhibit Description

This exhibit will showcase works created by Kentucky artists working together. Collaboration can result in exciting work as each artist brings his or her own skills and aesthetics to the process. Pieces submitted for this exhibit can be two or three dimensional and can be created by two artists working in the same medium or by artists working in different media. Artists will be asked to detail their specific contributions to the finished work.

Kentucky Artisan Center at Berea

The Kentucky Artisan Center at Berea is a state center that displays and sells the works of over 700 Kentucky artisans and promotes cultural heritage travel in Kentucky. The Center, located just off I-75 at Exit 77 at Berea, annually welcomes over 240,000 visitors.

Requirements/ Restrictions

Artists must be over 18 years of age and residents of Kentucky. Up to three entries may be submitted. Wall works must weigh 50 pounds or less, pedestal and floor works must weigh 100 pounds or less, and no dimension of any work submitted can exceed 4 feet. Works designed to hang on the wall must be "ready to hang." Works selected can be shipped or hand delivered to the Center. Any works that will need to be return shipped must be delivered or shipped in a sturdy, re-usable container with all packing included and a return label.

Sales

Works must be for sale and will be consigned, with the entering artisan receiving 60% of the retail price when the work sells. Works leave the exhibition when purchased and the Center may ask for replacements if available.
